

MARK W. PFEIFFER

HARRISON  MOBERLY, LLP

pfeiffer@harrisonmoberly.com

317-262-3742

PRIMARY PRACTICE

Tax Controversy and Dispute Resolution, Estate Planning, Estate and Trust Administration and Business Law

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Pfeiffer represents clients in tax, personal and business matters. He represents clients in tax disputes with the Internal Revenue Service and the Indiana Department of Revenue. He is well versed in estate and gift tax issues. His experience includes working with individuals and families in estate planning matters, estate and trust administrations and guardianships. He assists clients with premarital agreements, special needs planning, charitable gift planning and Medicaid issues. He works with business owners regarding succession planning, organizational issues and transactional matters.

EDUCATION

Community College of the Air Force, A.S., 1988; Indiana University, B.S., with High Distinction, 1991; Indiana University School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 1995

BAR ADMISSION

State of Indiana, United States Tax Court and the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Northern Districts of Indiana

MEMBER

The Indiana State Bar Association
Immediate Past Chairperson of the Taxation Section Council of the Indiana State Bar Association

SEMINARS AND PRESENTATIONS

2017 Tax Reform, a Review; Chair of the program, Author and Presenter; sponsored by the Taxation and Probate, Trust & Real Property Sections of the Indiana State Bar Association